Final Project Checklist

- The project has met the project hour requirement (approximately 80).
- The project report is in paragraph form with accurate grammar and spelling. The final report format has been followed and each question answered in full with more than one word or one sentence answers.

The following must be included:

- A detailed and accurate time log in the same format as in the Gold Award paperwork, and all increments of time greater than 30 minutes have detailed explanations (longer than one sentence documentation - remember, you are documenting your experience for those who were not present)
 - No more than 3 hours of paperwork completion is on the time log
 - Were the hours tracked in the proper manner (did not use travel time, sleeping hours, etc. and all explained adequately)?
- A letter (can be acceptance, thank you, congratulatory, recognition, etc.) from collaborative organization the project benefited (optional)
- Project documentation: photos, flyers, pamphlets, letters, thank you notes, newspaper articles, DVD's with interviews, etc.

Completed Hours:

- 1 Describe in detail your Gold Award Project. What did you do? Where was it held? What community did your project serve? How many people were served by your project? How did your project benefit others?

- 2 Describe the issue your project addressed and what impact you had hoped to make. What was the root cause of the issue? How did you address it?

- 3 What was the lasting effect on the community? How will your project be sustained beyond your involvement?

- 4 Explain the national and/or global link to your project?

5 Describe your reasons for selecting this project and your goals. Were your goals met? Describe any obstacles you encountered and what you did to overcome them.

6 Describe what steps you took to inspire others through sharing your project. (Web site, blog, presentations, posters, videos, articles, and so on). Please include links to any online documents

7 List the strengths, skills, talents, and abilities you developed or enhanced to complete your project. Did you need any extra training for your project?

8 Describe what you learned from this project including leadership skills you developed. What did you learn about yourself? Others? How do you think your leadership skills will grow in the future because of this project?

9 Evaluate your project. What was the most successful aspect of your project? What did you accomplish? What would you do differently next time?

10 How many total volunteers helped on your project? How many total hours? How many people benefited from this project?
