

Here's a suggested packing list for your weekend at Camp

Remember to plan and pack for the weather, which in Texas can mean multiple changes in a single day. Planning layers of clothing is a huge help as it's not uncommon to wear a sweatshirt in the morning but be in a t-shirt by lunch. You are also encouraged to label each camper's items with permanent marker. This packing list is highly suggested but may not be inclusive for all of your camping needs:

- Sleeping bag or bedroll; Optional Extra blankets (if necessary)
- Pillow
- Mess kit if doing meals on own (plate, bowl, knife, spoon, fork, cup, dunk bag/mesh bag w/drawstring)
- Flashlight with extra batteries (A MUST! Some units do not have electricity or lights in the cabins)
- Insect repellent (non-aerosol recommended)
- Sunscreen
- Rain poncho
- Lip Balm
- Bandanna
- Duffle bag to carry sleeping gear
- Day pack (to carry items around)
- Refillable water bottle
- Hat (A MUST! Visors not recommended)
- Swimsuit and towel if doing water activities
- Personal hygiene items, including but not limited to:
  - soap
  - shampoo and conditioner
  - towel
  - washcloth
  - comb/brush
  - toothpaste
  - toothbrush brush
  - deodorant
  - sanitary products as needed
- Undergarments- Underwear (1 per day); Bras (if needed)
- Socks (2 pairs per day)
- Shirts (short and long sleeve)
- Shorts (NO NYLON or WIND shorts are allowed around campfires)
- Long pants (for cool weather/evenings, optional)
- Sleepwear
- Closed-toe shoes (at least 2 pairs, recommended in case of wet weather, NO flip flops, sandals, or other open-toed footwear)

Optional Items:

- Sit upon/Camp chair
- Water shoes
- Jacket or sweatshirt for evenings
- SWAPS for sharing with others

Activity Specific Items to Pack:

Kayaking Participants:

- Water shoes, strap on water sandals like Chacos (NO FLIP FLOPS) or old tennis shoes you don't mind getting wet
- Extra towel
- Extra outfit that you don't mind getting wet
- Optional: Swimsuit

Climbing Wall or Zip line Participants:

- Closed toe shoes REQUIRED
- Longer shorts or jeans (harness can pinch)
- Full shirt (no crop tops as harness will rub and pinch)

Service Project Participants (items you don't mind getting torn or dirty), some projects involve walking in tall grass so we recommend bringing:

- Jeans or long pants
- Long-sleeve shirt
