

What Do Girl Scouts Do?

Anything they set their minds to.

What makes Girl Scouts unique?

- Girl Scouts is youth-led. From selecting the badges they'll earn, to deciding the trips and adventures they want to take, Girl Scouts of all ages choose how to follow their dreams and grow their skills.
- Girl Scouts learn by doing. Not only are hands-on activities more fun, they also encourage Girl Scouts to shape their own experience.
- Girl Scouts engage in cooperative learning. They experience firsthand that teamwork, respect, and collaboration can fuel them through any challenge that comes their way.

Badges

Girl Scouts discover new interests and explore their passions by earning badges. With hundreds to choose from, there's something for everyone. There are badges in STEM, life skills, entrepreneurship, art, the outdoors, citizenship, and more.

Cookie Program

Girl Scout Cookies aren't just a delicious treat! With the Cookie Program, Girl Scouts learn goal setting, decision making, money management, business ethics, and people skills— five skills essential to leadership, success, and life.

Events and Programs

Local events and programs bring Girl Scouts together from all over Central Texas to try activities, make friends, and have fun.

Highest Awards

The Girl Scout Bronze, Silver, and Gold Awards recognize Girl Scouts who take action to make the world a better place. The Gold Award is the highest award in Girl Scouting— Girl Scouts in grades 9–12 research, develop, and implement a lasting solution to a problem in their community.

Camp

Girl Scouts of Central Texas has two camp locations that offer year-round opportunities for new adventures, from ziplining and archery high adventures, to kayaking and sailing aquatics, to crafting and baking science experiments!

Courage, Confidence, and Character

Studies show being a Girl Scout improves confidence and makes youth better prepared for life's challenges. Being a Girl Scout helps girls earn better grades and make healthier decisions. Everything a Girl Scout does is designed to make sure they feel seen, supported, and cared for.
